

CRYSTALS AT CITYCENTER REVEALS UNPARALLELED NEW COLLECTION OF LUXURY RETAILERS AND RESTAURANTS

LAS VEGAS – CityCenter, the spectacular multi-use development opening in December 2009 on the Las Vegas Strip, announced an unparalleled collection of unique luxury retailers and restaurateurs that will join the already outstanding lineup at Crystals. The 500,000 square-foot retail and entertainment district is certain to become Las Vegas’ premier shopping experience.

Opening December 3, Crystals will showcase an unprecedented array of the world’s most exclusive retailers including many flagship stores. For many of these brands, the Crystals’ location will represent their largest in Las Vegas, the United States, or in some cases, the world.

Large-format luxury retailers that will establish Crystals as a preeminent international shopping destination include Prada, Christian Dior, Bulgari, Carolina Herrera, Hermes, Roberto Cavalli, Cartier, Van Cleef & Arpels and Versace. These esteemed brands will join previously announced retailers Louis Vuitton, TIFFANY & CO., Ermenegildo Zegna and Mikimoto.

Unique-to-the-market retailers opening their first locations in Las Vegas include Tom Ford, Assouline, Kiton, Miu Miu, Paul Smith and Porsche Design, along with the previously announced H. Stern, de Grisogono, Marni and Tourbillon. Restaurants opening their first Las Vegas locations at Crystals include Eva Longoria Parker’s BESO and Mastro’s Ocean Club. These dynamic restaurants will join an exciting new Pub concept by Todd English and two previously announced new concepts by Wolfgang Puck.

Other prestigious retailers joining Crystals’ luminous lineup include Bally, Emilio Pucci and ILORI. Additionally, Dale Chihuly will introduce a stunning new gallery.

The Taubman Company, the world's leading developer of upscale shopping centers, is responsible for the leasing of Crystals.
