

KOHN PEDERSEN FOX ASSOCIATES (KPF)
LEAD ARCHITECT: MANDARIN ORIENTAL, LAS VEGAS

“Creating buildings that meet the changing needs of our clients is paramount to everything we do. Our buildings exemplify our belief that the arts of architecture and urbanism are inseparable; when a Kohn Pedersen Fox structure is completed, the client has not only made a contribution to their future, but to the future of a city as well. As a firm that has taken particular pride in building in the center of vibrant cities around the world, we are excited to be a part of a development that will truly transform Las Vegas into a global city.”

-Paul Katz, AIA, Principal, Kohn Pedersen Fox

Headquarters

- New York, NY

Founded

- 1976

Project Principals:

- William Pedersen, Fellow of the American Institute of Architects, Fellow American Academy in Rome Paul Katz, American Institute of Architects

Overview

- Kohn Pedersen Fox Associates' portfolio includes mixed-use buildings, corporate and institutional master plans, office buildings, retail developments, entertainment complexes, corporate headquarters, educational and healthcare facilities, hotels, resorts, conference centers, residences and museums. KPF is committed to delivering the highest quality of architecture that responds to its environment both in terms of physical context and sustainability.
- Since its inception, KPF has grown from three principals to nearly 500 people with offices in New York and London and a growing presence in Shanghai. Completed buildings and projects in progress can now be found in more than 30 countries.

Recognition

- KPF's commitment to teamwork and quality, coupled with strict attention to detail and design, has earned the firm recognition as one of the most respected architectural design firms in the world. The firm has been the recipient of more than 200 awards for excellence recognizing a wide range of design and technical accomplishments. In 2005, KPF earned the AIA Honor Award bestowed by the National Chapter of the American Institute of Architects for the design of the Gannett/USA Today Corporate Headquarters in McLean, Virginia. The firm has received AIA's highest project design award five other times in its history.

Designing and Defining Luxury

- Mandarin Oriental, Las Vegas will be a sophisticated sanctuary of modern elegance prominently located at the entrance of CityCenter. Opening in December 2009, the 47-story, non-gaming and non-smoking hotel and residences will bring fine dining, a relaxing spa, spectacular accommodations and the personalized service of the world-renowned hotel group to Las Vegas. Situated on the 23rd floor will be the city's first Sky Lobby offering an unparalleled check-in experience. Featuring expansive views of Las Vegas, the Sky Lobby will boast multiple food and beverage offerings including Twist by Pierre Gagnaire, the first US restaurant of the world-renowned chef; an intimate Tea Lounge; and the boutique Mandarin Bar. Located on the third floor will be 12,000 square feet of advanced meeting space with spectacular Strip views, as well as MOzen Bistro, serving fresh preparations of world-class cuisine for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Amore Patisserie, located directly on Las Vegas Boulevard, will be a gourmet bakery serving pastries, sandwiches, coffee and teas. The Spa at Mandarin Oriental, Las Vegas will be a 27,000-square-foot oasis for serenity and rejuvenation inspired by the glamour and fusion of 1930s Shanghai. Additional amenities will include stunning elevated pools and accompanying cabanas; a top-of-the-line fitness; and wellness center and a distinguished salon. Superbly designed by Kohn Pedersen Fox and designer Adam D. Tihany, Mandarin Oriental, Las Vegas will set a new standard of style with stunning suites, amenities and architectural design.

###

For More Information

Jenn Michaels, MGM MIRAGE; 702-650-7565; jenn_michaels@mgmirage.com